The Sree Suryamangalam Bagalamukhi Devi Temple is a very significant, but relatively newer, establishment dedicated to the powerful Goddess Bagalamukhi, one of the Dasa Mahavidyas.

A crucial note: The Suryamangalam Temple dedicated to Bagalamukhi Devi is located in Kallidaikurichi, Tirunelveli District, in Tamil Nadu, NOT Karnataka. There are only two major Bagalamukhi temples in India (Himachal Pradesh and this one in South India), and the Suryamangalam Peetam established the South Indian temple in Tamil Nadu.
Here is the detailed information based on the location in Tamil Nadu:

🚗 How to Get There

The temple is located in a rural setting, accessible from nearby transport hubs:

* By Air:

  * Tuticorin Airport (TCR): Approx. 75 km away.
  * Trivandrum International Airport (TRV): Approx. 160 km away.

* By Rail:

  * Tirunelveli Junction (TEN): Approx. 35 km away. This is the nearest major railway station, well-connected to Chennai and other major cities.

* By Road: Kallidaikurichi is well-connected by local buses and taxis from Tirunelveli and nearby towns like Ambasamudram.

📜 History and Legends

* Modern Establishment: The temple is a recent establishment in South India. The foundation stone was laid around 2011 by the blessings of Sri Kanchi Kamakoti Peetathipathi, Poojyasri Sri Sri Jayendra Saraswathi Sankaracharya Swamiji.

* Purpose: The Sree Suryamangalam Advaitha Veda Vidhya Peetam decided to build this temple to bring the worship of Goddess Bagalamukhi (one of the Dasa Mahavidyas) to South India for the first time, ensuring the rituals are done strictly according to Thaantric Vidhi.

* Significance of Bagalamukhi Devi: She is one of the ten Mahavidyas (Great Goddesses of Wisdom) and is the Goddess of Stambhana (paralyzing or neutralizing negative forces and adversaries). She is often depicted holding a club to strike a demon's tongue, symbolizing her power to silence and defeat enemies, rumors, and slander.

* Vedic Origin: The Peetam (institution) emphasizes that the Goddess is worshipped even by the Supreme God Sri Parameshwar (Shiva), and her worship is done purely by Thaantric methods, not the Vedic or Aagama Sastra Vidhi used for other deities.

🏛️ Architecture and Deities

* Architecture: The construction follows the Dravidian style, but the consecration and design are strictly aligned with Thaantric Vidhi. The Peetam planned for the sanctum sanctorum and halls to be built by rock stone to last for centuries.

* Deities:

  * Main Deity: Sree Bagalamukhi Devi (also known as Peetambara Devi, as she is associated with yellow/golden color).

* Unique Feature: This temple claims to be the only one in the world where the Goddess is consecrated and worshipped in the Chathurbahu Vigraham (four-handed idol) form, in accordance with the Dhyana Sasthra Vidhi.

🙏 Daily Poojas, Rituals, and Special Poojas

The rituals here are dominated by the Thaantric Vidhi and involve specific Yagas (sacrificial fire ceremonies) and Homams.

* Daily Poojas and Rituals: The temple performs daily worship according to the prescribed Thaantric procedures.

* Special Yagas/Homams:

* Pournami Yagam (Full Moon Yagam): A major ritual conducted on the day of Pournami (Full Moon). This involves chanting Mantras 10,000 times along with Homam to fulfill the devotees' intentions (Sankalpam).
* Amavasai Yagam (New Moon Yagam): A similar ritual performed on Amavasai (New Moon).
* Parihara Poojas: Specific remedial Poojas are performed based on astrological predictions or to resolve personal hardships, often booked individually.

The temple's website has publicly listed the charge for the Pournami Yagam.

* Pournami Yagam Cost: ₹1,500 (per person) (Note: This rate is subject to change, always confirm before booking).

* Other Pooja Charges: For specialized Parihara Poojas, Homams, or Abhishekas, the charges are not publicly fixed and depend on the ritual's complexity and duration.

Recommendation: Contact the Mutt Administrator at the phone number provided (+(91) 73054 42299) to get the current rates and booking details for personalized rituals.

📅 Festivals/

* The temple is known for its regular monthly festivals centered around the Pournami (Full Moon) and Amavasai (New Moon) Yagas.
* Bagalamukhi Jayanti: The auspicious day of the Goddess's appearance (often in Vaisakh month) is celebrated grandly.
* Other major Hindu festivals are celebrated, but the monthly Yagas are the main attraction.

🏘️ Facilities for Devotees

* Accommodation (Temple-run): The temple provides accommodation facilities:

* Common Hall: Available for devotees free of cost.

* Private Accommodation: Available for a fee (approx. ₹2,000 per day, subject to change). Booking must be done at least 7 days in advance by contacting Mr. Ashok Kumar at +(91) 98419 96163.

* Note: Devotees who come specifically to perform Parihara Poojas are often provided accommodation by temple authorities free of cost.

* Food: All devotees are provided Food for free (Annadanam), irrespective of the accommodation type.

🌟 Speciality of this Temple

* South India's First: It is the first dedicated temple for Goddess Bagalamukhi in South India, established by the Sree Suryamangalam Peetam.

* Chathurbahu Vigraham: It is the only known place where the Goddess is consecrated in the four-handed form as per Dhyana Sasthra Vidhi.
* Strict Thaantric Worship: The temple strictly adheres to the Thaantric Vidhi for all consecration and worship rituals, making it highly specialized.

💳 Donation Information
